It does not need the headline, "Produce Prices Soar," to tell the people this too well known fact. They have found this out long ago and they will get a little further insight into it now that the war is over and price regulation will be abandoned. From this time on look for prices graduated only by what an already long suffering public will stand.

A bill has been introduced in congress providing that discharged soldiers may retain their uniforms. The present instructions are that uniforms be returned to the quartermasters department at the expiration of ninety days.

Thos. L. Mooney, who was convicted some time ago of throwing bombs into a preparedness parade at San Francisco, Cal. and sentenced to be hanged December 13, has had the sentence commuted by Gov. Stephens to a life term in the pen. If Mooney is guilty, as most all people believe him to be, he should be hung. If he is innocent—and hardly a soul believes that—he should be freed. He is not only guilty of murder, but he tried to prevent our government from getting ready to save the world.

After serving ten months of a two year sentence in the Jefferson City Penitentiary for conducting an immoral house in Monroe City, Sewell Griffin was paroled last week and returned home Monday. The parole was granted mainly on account of his aged mother, we understand.

The Shelby Democrat says Henderson Produce Co., paid out in that city during the month of November for all kinds of produce $52,544.35.

The biggest picture of them all—Pershing's Crusaders—will be shown at Gem Theatre Monday night, December 16.

It is no longer necessary to procure a license to ship hogs. Agents of the railroads have been instructed to accept hogs for shipment to the markets without asking for a permit.

A. H. McGee and wife have returned from a visit with E. A. Albright and wife at Macon City.

Miss Edith Jarman, daughter of Tom Jarman, formerly of this city but now of Indianapolis, Indiana, is reported quite sick with influenza and chances for recovery doubtful.

Mrs. John Warner and son, Arthur, of Hannibal, were guests of C. B. Anderson and family the first of the week.
